

SIENA COLLEGE UNIFORM STANDARDS

Sienna College adheres to Restorative Practices in managing issues regarding students in the hope that students will understand the vital role they play in the community. It is an expectation that all students are well groomed and in correct uniform at all times. When this does not occur, the following process will be followed. It allows students ample opportunity to address any uniform issues and take responsibility for their actions.

